42.020.2. Relationship with Rotary International

Rotarian Action Groups are a resource to Rotary clubs and districts in their specialty. Rotarian Action Group activities must be in harmony with RI policy. Rotarian Action Groups may not be used to promote religious beliefs, political issues, or other non-Rotary organizations, or for the primary purpose of advocacy. Recognition of a Rotarian Action Group by RI in no way implies legal, financial or other obligation or responsibility on the part of RI, or any district or club. A Rotarian Action Group may not act on behalf of RI, or represent or imply that it has authority to act on behalf of RI. A Rotarian Action Group is not an agency of RI. Rotarian Action Groups must be self-sustaining financially, administratively, and otherwise. Rotarian Action Groups may not exist or function in any country in violation of the laws of such country.

The RI president shall appoint a seven member Rotarian Action Groups committee to oversee the operations of all Rotarian Action Groups. The members of the committee will include four RI directors or immediate past RI directors, two Rotarian Action Group representatives, and one trustee. The chair of the committee shall be a director or past director. Committee terms should be staggered, with directors serving three year terms so they remain on the committee for one year as a past director. This committee will consider requests from Rotarian Action Groups for alternative funding models for referral to the RI Board.

Individual Rotarian Action Groups are not covered by RI insurance and are encouraged to assess their own risk and secure coverage as appropriate. (January 2011 Mtg., Bd. Dec. 137)

Following is an approved example of how such language may be incorporated into a statement describing a Rotarian Action Group.

"The Rotarian Action Group for Urban Concerns is a group of Rotarians whose purpose is to mobilize Rotarians and provide global leadership to address issues such as crime, unemployment, substance abuse, and homelessness. This Rotarian Action Group operates in accordance with Rotary International policy, but is not an agency of, or controlled by, Rotary International." (January 2012 Mtg., Bd. Dec. 191)
